“ I have so many memories of Matt. He spent so much time while growing up at our house. He was such a loving person even as a child. There were camping trips and time together while his dad was sick and you could see that the sweet little boy had grown into the same loving, compassionate man. He was a wonderful cousin and his passing will leave a gaping hole in our hearts, BUT what a peace knowing he is no longer in pain, he is with his dad and more importantly his Heavenly Father. Love you mattmoo.
